Peoria, AZ, May 20,2021 – Allison Rooker announces the publication of Can You Go Home and Other Short Stories, a collection of three short stories ranging from Young Adult to Romance. The collection will release on Smashwords.com for $2.99 on May 30,2021.

"Can You Go Home" is the opening story of the collection. McKenna Summerlin has just returned to her rural hometown on the coast of South Carolina. No one knows she has left her college in New York, in the middle of the semester no less. Showing up at her family home a little bruised and shaken up. Will McKenna's family be able to help her?

"Forgotten Memories" Elenore Young is in the process of moving her daughter Katherine and her family into her house with her but they have to do an addition first. So Katherine and Elenore are in a hotel in town to check out the remodel. A detective comes searching for Elenore one morning to talk about her late husband and the conversation gets emotional.

"The Muse" Rita is just your everyday girl except for her exceptional street style. That street style captures the attention of Nigel. Nigel has an opportunity for Rita that will be everything she ever wanted or will it go up in flames?
